Photoshop is the most powerful graphics editor available. It is also the most complex. That makes it essential for artists, designers, and anyone involved in anything that involves images. This guide will take you step by step through the process of creating a simple Photoshop file from start to finish. We'll make a basic greeting card using Photoshop, and so you can test your Photoshop skills. How to Make a Greeting Card Creating your own greeting card is much easier than you might think. All you need is the following: Sticker sheet The sticker sheet contains 36 iconic images of angels, animals, people, and more. These images are perfect for a card, as the animal and human images depict an entire spectrum of various emotions. This is a free download from www.craft-party.com The sticker sheet is in Adobe's Portable Document Format (PDF) format. A PDF reader is needed to open this file. Adobe Acrobat Reader is free to download. The document is very thick, and the file size is quite large, so make sure that you have enough free space on your computer to open it. You also need the following: Colors In Photoshop, we generally use the RGB model. This is a model in which each of the primary colors has its own value: red, green, and blue. These are available as the tools Colorize (RGB), Hue (Hue Saturation) and Brightness (Luminance). There are also the special-purpose tools. These tools provide special effects. The most useful is the Pencil tool. Using the Pencil tool is similar to using a pencil to make a doodle on an image: you can draw, but only with one color, black. You can also use the Airbrush tool to paint with color, by using the dots on the palette as pressure points to paint in the desired color. The Fill tool fills the selected area with the specified color. The Shape tool allows you to create shapes and then fill it, similar to making a stamp. Step 1: Open Photoshop Open Photoshop and drag and drop the sticker sheet in the file browser. Select Files>Import. Step 2: Select the First Sticker Scroll through the sticker sheet using the arrow keys or click-drag with your mouse. This will select the first image. Step 3: Starting with a Blank Can a681f4349e

Studio Ghibli's million-dollar debt fest to pass $500 million The Wall Street Journal [Re-posted March 12, 2017] Makoto Shinkai's ultra-successful "your name." A few months ago, when the movie "Your Name" passed the $1 billion mark, it seemed only a matter of time before its huge success would eventually be reflected in the financial balance sheets of the two companies it had just passed. The only problem: how to best reflect the success of Makoto Shinkai's breakout hit movie in the books and records of the two companies at the center of the success, Walt Disney Japan and Disney Enterprises, Inc.? The answer, which was announced early this week, is that the financial books of the two companies will now include an additional $200 million plus in "Your Name" revenue, as the financial services company Computershare Inc. revealed on Wednesday. With such a huge new increase in the net income of the combined companies, combined revenues of the two Disney Japanese-led entities are now at nearly $800 million for the fiscal year ending July 31, 2013, compared to an estimated $500 million at the end of fiscal 2013. It was in fact, the strong performance of "Your Name" itself — the movie has grossed $1.44 billion worldwide since opening in Japan in July 2014, and in the U.S. in September 2014 — that made the news about the move possible, with many feeling Disney Japan and Disney Enterprises would somehow not be able to handle the increased income from the huge success of "Your Name." But once it was determined Disney Enterprises, Inc., which includes the U.S.-based businesses of Pixar Animation Studios, Walt Disney Animation Studios, Disney Consumer Products, Disney Interactive and ESPN, could take care of the first $200 million plus of "Your Name" revenue, Disney Japan moved to capitalize on the international recognition its first Japanese anime film has enjoyed since its release. Thus, beginning March 11 and over the course of the following weeks, the Disney Japan-led entities will begin to record "Your Name" revenue from both Japan and other Asian territories it has recently released in, including China, Taiwan, and Hong Kong. The fiscal year of Disney Japan is calendar year, however the fiscal year of Disney Enterprises Inc. is a calendar year that ends July 31. The
