The new controller features a revamped left stick that allows greater precision and a new dual thumbstick design, providing additional gameplay options for the first time. A variety of gameplay modes are also available in FIFA Ultimate Team, including Draft Mode, where players can create their team and compete in the PES 2017 Team of the Season mode. Finally, FIFA 19 introduced FUT Master Draft, which allows players to preview potential players before trading in their FUT Points. FIFA Ultimate Team will now be accessible in Draft Mode from the main menu screen for the first time. In addition, the new Rodeo feature will be available for the first time to FIFA Ultimate Team players. "FIFA 19 introduced brand new gameplay systems, such as 'Social Intelligence' which uses data collected from live social media feeds from players to replicate player emotions," said Matt Tong, executive producer on FIFA. "With the introduction of 'HyperMotion' and 'Social Intelligence,' this year's game gives players the most authentic and complete football experience ever made." "Our world-class gameplay team continues to push the boundaries of FUT this year," added Alex McMorran, game director on FIFA. "Our 'fastest, deepest and most accurate' FIFA ever is the result of players telling us they want to progress at their own pace with varied gameplay and we are confident we can deliver on this." Additional features and information can be found in the attached press release. Developer: Electronic Arts Inc. Publisher: Electronic Arts Inc. Available on: PlayStation®4, Xbox One and PC. Eating behaviors of frail elders at home: who and what. There have been a growing number of studies exploring eating behaviors of healthy older adults; however, none of the research has yet examined behaviors of frail older adults at home. This study examined home-based eating behaviors of elderly men and women who were either frail, prefrail, or well. Participants (n = 149) were three to six days from discharge from a medical center and were not currently prescribed home-care services. Sociodemographic data, assessments of activity levels, and the Nursing Home Eating Assessment Tool (NH-EAT) were obtained for all participants. Analysis showed that there were no significant differences between the three groups of participants with regard to the rates of eating fast food or

What's new:

- PLAYER DEMANDS Add a range of new and exciting characters to your FIFA Ultimate Team, and unlock new, cool customisation options including fitness and injury ratings that give you even more control over the style of your players. Go online and see who's waiting for you in the FUT Champions League, too.
- Football Clubs There are 21 football clubs across Europe, representing the countries where football is most popular. You can choose a Club jersey, but can't design the shirt. TANGECCO CEO takes on China Indian manufacturing company, Tangential Edge Co (TECO) has taken on China by engineering a new kick-starting plan for the Indian technology industry. In June last year, TECO launched its brand new website, along with a new advertisement campaign giving it greater visibility, scope and authority. At the time of launch, the company was delighted to announced that "Tangential Edge will primarily be focussed on India and the rest of the world as we focus on elevating India to its rightful place in the technology industry. We are a top public company where the best technology expertise in India is housed". Initially, Tom Crofter, the company's CEO, is reported in Business Standard magazine as saying: "Next year, we aim to achieve strategic product customers, couple that with a strong distributor and distribution network for India, and we look to expand from there." According to the company's own 'year to 2016' prospectus circulated in financial year 2014-15 Tangential Edge had achieved a turnover of INR223 crore, a growth rate of about 4% over the previous financial year, and sales of over INR102 crore, a growth of 36% over the preceding financial year. However, a statement from TECO this week suggests that the company is focusing on what is changing in the large, developing markets for emerging technologies, like the internet, e-commerce, social networking and the mobile phone applications each of these emerging markets brings to the table. The company seems to be predicting that the start-up of these sectors in the last few years is about to take off, with the front-end of the process - the custom development projects - now approaching their climax. This is accompanied by 'second phase' projects - generally developed locally but ready-made hardware platforms - coming in for the last
