School Models Paula Custom.68 Â· The Information Age.YFCU Health Insurance Services The YFCU Health Insurance Services is the medical insurance division of the YFCU. It is an independent non-profit association of health insurance companies that is regulated by the Government of Ontario. It is one of the four "Plan Sponsors" of the Ontario Health Insurance Plan. The YFCU uses an administrative system that was pioneered by the Sisters of Charity of the Holy Names of Jesus and Mary, in particular the YMCM. It is a hub and spoke model, with the purpose of having participating medical insurance companies pass claims directly to the insurers, rather than to the insurer's underwriting department. YFCU employees act as the "hub", passing claims to the "spokes", where they are processed. Fees are paid to the YFCU to perform this function. Membership The YFCU Health Insurance Services has 2,000 members. Affiliated and partnering organizations BMO Financial Group CIBC Group of Companies Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce National Bank of Canada Scotiabank TD Canada Trust
