I loved it!! Then I turned on the TV. Now onto the spoiler free part. The general idea is that you are all 5 years in Harry's life and are at Hogwarts for the first time. I loved the way the anime was done and thought the dialogue was one of the best parts of it. (In the manga's case, the dialogue was so good, I didn't really like the rest) I did think that for the first half of the first episode they were a little slow. That was only because they were introducing us to people and I think we are supposed to know who everyone is, but I actually didn't really understand who any of the people were until I rewatched it later (it was more of the 5 yrs in Harry's life part to figure it out) And I think because the rest of it is so different from the manga, it was hard for me to tell if the people in the anime was from the manga. I do think the characters were so much better than the manga. (Though they may not be the ones in the manga) They were full. Some of them were really hilarious. Everyone has their own individual personality. I think their personalities really made the characters better in the anime as well. I can't say enough good about the anime. I can't say enough good about how beautiful it was. I just loved every second of it. It was so different and awesome.
